About

The story of to:from began in Summer 2016 when its founder, Agni, and her family moved to Barcelona, and instantly fell in love with the city. In just a few years they were completely immersed in the local lifestyle. Life in the Mediterranean inspired Agni to pursue her own creative project. After many hours of trial and error, Agni finally found her recipe to make candles that her customers would enjoy and the brand to:from was born.

To:from produces handmade scented soy wax and beeswax candles, celebrating colourful nature, wanderlust and the Mediterranean lifestyle. Since its launch in 2017, to:from has been recognized locally and internationally for its playful, bold style and collaborations with fellow creatives and artists.

Today to:from has a beautiful studio/store in the heart of Gracia, Barcelona from where the candles are handmade daily to bring a piece of the Mediterranean to your home.
